M. A. A. A. ACHIEVED VICTORY AND WILL NOW PLAY MCGILL FOR LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP

The Contest was a Hard Fought One But the M. A. A. A. Proved too Strong for Last Year's Champions and Won the Game by 4 to 1

MCGILL CHANCES FOR CHA...SHIP GOOD

Manager McKay is Hopeful of Success in the Coming Encounter with M. A. A. A.

One of the keenest of this season's games was witnessed by a large gathering at the Y.M.C.A. swimming tank last night, when the Montreal Swimming Club were defeated by four goals to one. The game started punctually at 8.45, Zimmerman shortly afterwards scoring for the M.S.C. The lead gained by the latter was not long maintained for Ritchie, who starred all through for the M.A.A.A., soon shot a splendid goal. This he quickly followed up with two others, the second from an excellent pass from Cains.

Score 1st. Quarter M.A.A.A. 4. M. S.C. 1.

The second quarter commenced immediately, the M. A. A. A. defending the goal at the deep end. The game settled down somewhat and was from now onwards very evenly contested. The play on the whole was good although all through especially in the third and fourth quarters, there were too many fouls. The only score in the second quarter was another good goal by Ritchie. Play shortly ceased for the interval leaving the score as follows :

Score Second Quarter, M.A.A.A. 4. M.S.C. 1.

After ten minutes interval the game was once more resumed; but was in many way dissapointing. The outstanding features at this period being the excellent skill shown by the goalkeepers of both sides. Rust of the M. A. A. A. saved several good shots at goal, and without him his club would probably not have had the lead. Walton too, for the M.S. C. did very well.

The number of players deservedly suspended from the game for the one minute spell, was none too small, and was about equal on both sides.

The play in the whole of the second half was very open and no further score was registered, leaving the M.A.A.A. winners by the score 4—1. There were no old McGill men in either of the teams, but it is said on good authority, that H. McLean, who played well for the M.A.A.A. will be a red and white next year.

The following was the lineup :—

M.A.A.A.		M.S.C.
Goal.....	B. Rust ...	... T. Walton
Defence ...	H. McLean,	E. D. Vermot
Defence ...	L. Earl ...	W. MacDonald
Centre	G. Ritchie	S. King
Forward	J. Cains ...	R. Zimmerman
Forward	H. Crowdie,	W. Gathercole

The following officiated:—
Referee—Macarty.
Judge of Play—Lee Smith
Time-keepers—McKay and Maltby
Penalty Time-k'prs—Ross, Norris
Goal Judge—Lorns.

The gallery was well filled, the usual large number of ladies being present.

After the game, Manager MacKay, of the McGill team, was interviewed by a "Daily" reporter. "The boys are in fine form," he said, "and have been in steady training for the past few weeks." It is a great pity that so many of McGill's players should be indisposed at this important time --but there is still plenty of good

LEADERS HAVE BEEN CHOSEN AND CANVASSERS SECURED FOR THE COMING CAMPAIGN

The Approaching Week Promises to be a Momentous One in the History of the Y.M.C.A. and McGill Universitty for More Reasons than One

MR. H. D. ROBERTSON WILL SPEAK ON MONDAY

Another One of the Popular Monthly Suppers will Also Take Place the Same Night

The Y. M. C. A. are making a determined effort to enrol a large percentage of the student body in groups studying the Bible and Missions, and to this end they have planned a large meeting on Monday night.

The occasion is the first of those popular features known as "Monthly Suppers" which proved so full of interest last term.

Mr. H. D. Robertson, the Y.M.C.A. Student-Secretary for Canada, has been secured, and will give a talk upon the claims of bible study upon by an address upon Missions by one of our own graduates who has been doing famous work for the past five years in Calcutta, in the person of Chas. S. Paterson, B.Sc. '99, M.Sc. '01.

As Mr. Robertson has been engaged in educational work in the West of China, we shall have the good fortune to listen to two returned Missionaries who are laymen, and who have found the fullest use of their capabilities in the foreign field. This should do a good deal towards removing the false notion that ordained ministers are the only kind of men needed for missionary work.

Following this meeting, a systematic canvass is to be made of the students in the Arts, Medicine, and Theology, with the purpose of enrolling men in groups studying the bible and missions. This canvass is being undertaken not by the Y. M. C. A. alone, but by the United Christian students of the University, comprising a large number of men from the theological colleges. It is one of the good results of the recent Peterborough Conference that this united stand has been made possible.

Leaders have been appointed, canvassers secured, and it will be a strange thing indeed if the conviction of the worth whileness of these two great departments of Christian work, that is undoubtedly possessed by the men behind the movement, did not result in the enrolment of an unprecedented number of McGill students, and hence in a decided deepening of the religious life of our university.

THE COMING CAMPAIGNE

Energy and efficient organization will go far towards achieving success in almost any undertaking and the executive of the McGill Y.M.C.A. are evincing the energy and perfecting an organization which should go far to make their coming campaign one of the most thorough and systematic ever undertaken at McGill University.

That they will meet with success in the good work they have undertaken we do not doubt as every student at McGill University must realize that the opportunities offered by the association can be made of the greatest value to himself. The Y.M.C.A. are offering an opportunity to the undergraduate which he cannot afford to neglect as the development of his character cannot be obtained along the most beneficial lines unless he is actuated by those great fundamental truths which are revealed by a study of the bible and which should lie behind all his aims and aspirations.

Many an undergraduate unconsciously adopts a passively autimonious attitude in his daily life and the Y. M.C.A. is striving to reach these men among others, to aid them to rise from the slough of selfish misconceptions in which they are gradually becoming immersed. We will have more to say about the Y.M.C.A. campaign in the near future and for farther information on the matter we ask our readers to watch to-morrow's and Saturday's paper.

TURN OUT AND CHEER

Never in the past have the Water Polo team had such an excellent chance of winning the Senior championship as they have this year and never have they been in need of support more than they are at present. The executive are hopeful that to-morrow night the long coveted championship will at last be brought to the halls of our Alma Mater and they feel that the larger the number of their supporters the more encouragement the team will naturally receive.

Reports regarding the various men who have been indisposed lately are of the most favorable character and the manager is exceedingly optimistic as to the teams chances in to-morrow night's struggle with the M.A.A. A. team. It remains for the undergraduates to do their part in the good work. Be on hand to-morrow night at the M.S.C. baths and help the representatives of the red and white in their struggle for the premier honors of the water polo league. The team deserve every credit for their splendid showing in the regular league games during the fall and fully merit the enthusiastic and loyal support of the undergraduate body.

NEW PARTY MAY BE A THORN IN FLESH OF THE GOVERNMENT

Independents Prenared to Denounce Abuses Rampant in Older Parties

The rumor was current at College yesterday that the opening of the Mock Parliament would this year witness the advent of a new party. There are several men who feel that they cannot conscientiously give their support to either the Liberals or Conservative parties and still less to the Socialist faction. They believe that a man can not be asked to agree with all the measures proposed by his party and that more room should be left to private judgement. Thus for instance they believe that because a man was against Reciprocity there is no reason why he should be forced by the force of public opinion and by party spirit to approve of and vote for the Borden Naval Policy. At the same time they agree that both parties are lagging behind the times and are not looking after the true interests of the country. They advocate measures of Reform such as suffrage for women, referedum, a downwards revision of the tariff, more stringent land laws preventing capitalists or joint stock companies from getting hold of our national resources. They think that Comissions should be appointed to look after the different industries in the way that the Railway Commission controls the railways. They also favor the formation of Commissions investigating the "higher cost of living" and "the trust problem." They believe that laws should be made regulating banking transactions so that banks should serve the interest of the people and not that of the "Captains of Industry".

It seems that the future of an independent progressive part at McGill would be very bright. It would unite men of different political beliefs who are tired of the yoke of the parties which have been shaping the destiny of Canada.

material, and we may hope for satisfactory results. Many players have been out to practice very regularly, and should be in good condition for Friday's game, when they play off with last night's winners. The team which has not yet been picked, will be announced on Friday.

Those who have practiced regularly are:—Baldwin, McGill, Buckley, Egerton, Patterson, Crossley, Lee Smith and John Currie, the last named unfortunately having a bad cold.

The game should be a good one and McGill will be well represented amongst the spectators.

THE FIRST HOCKEY PRACTICE SINCE THE TEAM CAME BACK HELD YESTERDAY AFTERNOON

An Hours Hard Work was Put in by the Senior Squad and the Rail Birds are Hopeful as a Result—Two Full Teams were on Hand

YESTERDAY'S WORKOUT WAS AN EXCELLENT ONE

The Team Appear to be in Fairly Good Condition and have Apparently Benefited by their Trip

Yesterday afternoon at five o'clock the McGill Hockey squad had their first practice since the tour to the States ended. Two full teams were on hand and the men went at it hammer and tongs for an hour. As a result the practice was first rate, and it was obvious, to anybody who saw the practices before the beginning of the holiday trip, that the team had benefited considerably by the six games they played while away from Montreal

The play during the practice was more systematic than on the previous occasions when the squad were out and as a result the practice was better. The men showed a desire to play together and although some of the passes were clumsily made and others went astray owing to the fact that no one was there to take them, still the men showed that they are able to combine to good effect.

The following back however was not as good as it might have been. There was a notable feature of the teams play last year and was largely responsible for their success in winning the championship as the men covered up with unfailing regularity and thus many times foiled their opponents efforts to score. The first game is still some ten days away however and the men will have a chance to perfect this part of their play under the able coaching of Mr. Roberts.

Smith was out with the squad last night and played consistently through out the hour's practice. Cakie held down his position well and seems to have conquered in some degree his predeliction for leaving his position and roving round the ice. He is just as fast as ever and his shooting is on the whole better than it was last year.

The defence played their usual consistent game although on one occasion they let Pontbriand fool them single handed and score alone. Bill Hughes rushes were good and he has lost none of his speed, while Rankin, who was not out for very long showed that he is in condition and able to play just as sensational and effective a game as he did last year.

Pontbriand, who played city league hockey last winter was out with McGill squad last night and showed up favorably. He appears to have speed and he is a good shot and a fairly hard worker. Bert Sargent was a bit off color and seemed rather slow while Wickson seemed to have trouble getting started and showed a disposition to loaf.

McGill is fortunate this year in having two goal keepers to choose from. On the form displayed last night it would be hard to choose between Montgomery and Mann, although perhaps the former showed up a little bit better than the later.

One thing is certain and that is the fact that both men are capable of holding down the position in good style.

Jake Forman worked hard and played a fair game. He seems to be in pretty fair shape after the trip and covered Wickson well. Ryley at centre for the intermediates played a hard consistent game and is improving steadily.

Thompson, was as usual, there with the goods when there was any chance of scoring and his stick handling is trickier than ever.

The following men were out at practice :—Mann, Hughes, Montgomery, Rankin, Thompson, Forman, Pontbriand, Wickson, Smith, Kendall, Fawcett, DeMuth, Ryley, Sargent, Forman.

CANADIENS DEFEAT THE WANDERER TEAM IN A CLOSE CONTEST

Game was a Brilliant One and Large Crowd Enthused

In a keenly contested game at the Arena last night, Wanderers went down to defeat at the hands of the Canadiens by a score of 4—3.

An immense crowd witnessed the game, and enthusiasm ran high from start to finish. The ice was in the best of condition and on that account the hockey provided was of the fastest type.

In the first period both Vezina and Boyce were peppered with shots and certainly deserved credit for the manner in which they handled them. End to end runs were much in evidence, but these proved ineffective, finally, however, Smith notched a goal for Canadiens on a pass from Pitre. Ross and Pitre both made nice runs and then Miller succeeded in getting the disc past Vezina, tying the score. The bell rang immediately.

The second period opened with a rush. Lalonde made an excellent run and netted Canadien's second goal. Miller for Wanderers, showed up exceptionally well in this period, and Boyce in the nets, proved a tower of strength. Ross too did good work. Wanderers scored from a mix-up in front of Canadien's nets, making the score 2—2. Shortly after this Smith scored another for Canadiens, and in a few minutes, Pitre repeated the trick. Wanderers tried hard to tally but were unsuccessful.

During the last period Wanderers worked very hard to overcome the lead, Ross, Miller and Odie Cleghorn making numerous spectacular runs. Cleghorn finally tallied for Wanderers on a shot from the side, shortly after which the final gong sounded with the score standing — Canadiens 4—Wanderers 3.

The teams and officials were:—

DR. WELSH TO RESUME COURSE OF LECTURES ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Will Speak on Comparative Religions

Sunday afternoon at 2.30 p.m., Dr. Welsh will resume the course of lectures which proved so interesting to the men who attended them, last term. Last term Dr. Welsh dealt with the difficulties that College men find in accepting the creeds at the bans of the different Protestant Churches. He showed conclusively that the new science which in certain quarters is supposed to have given Christianity its deathblow, helps to understand the Bible if properly interpreted.

This term Dr. Welsh will take up the study of Comparative Religions. He will devote lectures to the study of Buddha and Buddhism the religion which he founded, Brahama and Brahmanism, Confucius and Confucianism, the religion of the Chinese and Mohamet and Mohammedanism. After having given a short history of these different systems and a sketch of the different doctrines they propound, Dr. Welsh will compare them with Christanity.

Drl Welsh is no mean authority on the subject and his lectures are sure to attract a good crowd on Sunday at 2.30 p.m. at Strathcona Hall.

What Shall I Do To-morrow Night ?

PROSE POEM

What shall I do to-morrow night? I'm really in a sorry plight; I ought to stay at home and work and yet I'm half inclined to shirk; although exams are drawing near now can I stay and study here while all the other men I know are clearly quite resolved to go and take a pleasant evening's rest at polo game or skating fest.

But I'm a staunch Conservative. So I would like to go and give a hand to start the party well, for really you can never tell what new excitement will arise, what new announcement or surprise; for politics are lots of fun and when the trouble's once begun it's hard to tell where it will end. I have no doubt you've heard my friend of what a lovely row occurred when Sifton came to speak a word. They said it was a sad disgrace that such a fracas should take place. No doubt they're right but, on the square, I'm rather glad that I was there.

At times I feel inclined to think I'll skate upon the campus rink, for lovely women will be there and I am partial to the fair. I like to fuss the time away and hear the hurdy gurdy play, the while I tease some fair freshette in such a way she won't forget the many things I said and did for I am quite a candy kid; besides they serve refreshments free, and things to eat appeal to me.

And then there is the polo game and it would really be a shame, if I did not attend to root and watch our skillful swimmers shoot. To-morrow night they're going to play against the fast M.A.A.A.—What's that? the telephone for me? I wonder, now, who can it be? Hello! Hello! Is that you, Joe? You have two tickets for a show! The Gayety — tomorrow night—No, nothing else, so that's alright.

INTERCOLLEGIATE NOTES

YALE.

Yale has announced a hockey schedule of ten games for the season of 1913 with the possibility of playing two others in case of a tie with Harvard and Princeton. All but two of these games are due to be held in the rink at New Haven, making eight games at home and Harvard and Princeton the only teams to be met on a strange rink.

The schedule follows:—

Jan. 13.—Princeton at New Haven.

Feb. 1.—Harvard at Boston.
Feb. 4.—Columbia at New Haven.
Feb. 8.—Dartmouth at New Haven.
*Feb. 12.—Princeton at New York.
Feb. 19.—Harvard at New Haven.
*Feb. 22.—Harvard at Boston.
*To be played only in case of tie.

COLUMBIA

Columbia has lost the services of Captain John S. Bates of the University hockey team just as the season opens because of a recent ruling of the committee on athletics to the effect that the captain is debarred by the three year playing rule.

Bates was elected captain last spring, believing that he was eligible for one more year on the team but the committee has decided that his playing for Acadia College, Nova Scotia, for one year before entering Columbia will have to count as one year on a 'Varsity team and this with two seasons on the Blue and White team debar him from further participation in the intercollegiate sport.

Coming, as it has, barely a week before the opening game of the season, Coach Howard feels that it makes all the pre-season practice of no avail for Bates was considered as one of the strongest men in the game and the brunt of the attack was borne by him at rover. A new captain will be elected at the earliest possible date.

DARTMOUTH.

Dartmouth's track management has accepted an invitation from the Denver Athletic Club to send its track team to Denver for a meet with some Western college men. The meet is to be held in that city during the first part of April under the auspices of the Athletic Club which has already sent representatives to Leland Stanford University in order to try to arrange the match with that institution. Should Leland Stanford refuse, the University of California will be invited.

THE LIBERAL PARTY ALSO PREPARING FOR APPROACHING FRAY

Present Office Holders Are Confident of Success in Coming Session of Mock Parliament

In anticipation of the Mock Parliament session which is about to begin, prominent members of the liberal party wax optimistic. They are of the opinion that the great splurge at present being made by the conservatives is as the nature of a bubble which will soon be pricked. Last year the conservatives commenced the season with the same fireworks, but when the crucial test came, they were found to be lamentably lacking in support. The strongest men in the University are affiliated themselves with the Liberal Party, and many have already signified their intention of doing so again this year.

This afternoon a small informal meeting of liberals will be held, and plans for organization etc. will be discussed; also dates and places of meeting for party rallies and elections will be decided upon.

There are well founded rumors in circulation, to the effect that a prominent member of the Laurier cabinet, now resident in Ontario, will speak at the first of these big rallies, and the many grounds for opposition to the Borden Naval policy (so-called) will be thoroughly threshed out.

Hon. A. Knachbull-Hugessen, who so successfully led the government last year will be urged to take up the reins of government again. He will have able assistance from many who were members of last year's cabinet, and there is also an abundance of promising new material among those who have recently decided to throw in their lot with those who are fighting for the best traditions of Canadian democracy, antonomy, and purity of public administration.

LITTLE DAMAGE DONE ON FOREST RESERVE IN ROCKY MOUNTAINS

Only a Few Small Fires Took Place Last Year

During the season of 1912 there have been no dangerous fires within either the Brazeau or Athabaska Forests of the Rocky Mountains Forest Reserve. There have been a few small fires along the new railways under construction within the Brazeau Reserve, caused by negligence on the part of contractors, but throughout the season the weather conditions have been so favorable that the danger of serious fires was almost negligible.

The Brazeau and Athabaska forests are the two northerly divisions of the large Rocky Mountains forest reserve and with proposed additions constitute over one third the total area of the Rocky Mountain Forest Reserve on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains, or about four and a half million acres. The office of the forest supervisor of these reserves is now situated within the Brazeau reserve, at Mile 37 of the Alberta Coal Branch, 46 miles southwest of Edson, the first divisional point on the main line of the G.T.P. Ry., 150 miles west of Edmonton. During the season of 1912 there have been fifteen forest rangers in all stationed at different points over the two reserves. This, of course, is a very inadequate force for such a large area.

She—How did you know that you loved me?

He—Oh, I learned that by heart.

Maxims For Students of Engineering

From "Addresses to Engineering Student"
BY WADEELL AND HARRINGTON

Look forward to the important crisis of your life. They are nearer than you are apt to imagine. It is a very safe protective rule to live to-day as if you were going to marry a pure woman within a month. That rule you will find a safeguard, for worthy living. It is a good rule to endeavour hour by hour and week after week to learn to work hard. It is not well to take four minutes to do what you can accomplish in three. It is not well to take four years to do what you can perfectly accomplish in three. It is well to learn to work intensely. You will hear a good deal of advice about letting your soul grow and breathing in without effort the atmosphere of a learned society or place of learning. Well, you cannot help breathing and you cannot help growing; those processes will take care of themselves. The question for you from day to day is how to learn to work to advantage, and college is the place and now is the time to win mental power. And, lastly, live to-day and every day like a man of honour.—Elliott.

No man should be satisfied until he has done the best that he is capable of doing, and he must remember that it is vastly more important to himself that he sets and maintains a high standard in his work than it is for the teacher, or later his employer to set it for him.—McKibben.

Knowledge alone is not power. The ability to use knowledge is a latent power, and the actual use of it is a power. Instead of storing your mind with usefhl knowledge, therefore, I will say to you, store your minds with useful tools, and with a knowledge of how to use such tools. —Johnson.

Freshman's Letter to His Girl

Dear Susie:—

I received your letter the day before yesterday. It came at 11 o'clock, and I didn't go to lecture because I wanted to read it. It was very nice, but I could not answer it right away, because I had no ink. So you say you ain't well, which I am very sorry to hear. I feel good all the time, there are so many good things to eat here, and one can buy so much down town. I bought myself a nice box of chocolates and they tasted fine. You ought to buy yourself one.

There was a reception held a short time back called the Freshman's Reception. Some of the fellows danced; I didn't, because no girl asked me. I am glad they didn't because you do not believe in dancing. Some of them did not dance. I guess the girls did not ask them either, they looked like it.

I watched the dance. I couldn't at first make out what they were dancing, but I saw some numbers which I took to mean 6 step, 7 step, 8 step and everything became clear to me. I saw some were taking steps all the time, and others, especially the ladies, weren't taking any. I don't blame their partners for looking mad.

The music was fine. I didn't see anybody play by ear, they all used their hands, one man used his feet.

After this I premenaded a short time, that I might have an appetite for the refreshments. They were served in the library which place I presume was chosen because students usually have a literary taste. After walking over two or three fellows, I got myself something to eat at one of the tables. It was with great difficulty that I retraced my steps, only to run into a fat-headed fellow, with a white vest. He accused me of trying to throw coffee at him and threatened to slap me in the face with a dish of ice cream, but he didn't. He told me he was a sophomore and I believed it for he was the homeliest fellow I ever saw. I felt happy when I saw that some fellows didn't get anything; it served them right. They were always thinking about someone else.—The Gateway.

"Living temperately consists in every man finding out for himself what suits him and sticking to it, whether it be four meals a day or two, roast beef or Brazil nuts, a bottle of brandy or undiluted pump. There is no general rule for all; if a man deceives himself he will have to foot the bill," says the Pall Mall.
